BRIEF MENTIONINGS.

Events in and About the City Given in a Nutshell.

Council meets this evening in regular session.

Base ball this afternoon—Wheeling vs. Mansfield.

The LaBelle and Belmont plate mills are off on account of the scarcity of steel.

Mr. and Mrs. James Strange, colored residents of "Moral" alley, were arrested yesterday and will face the mayor this morning to answer charges of using profane language.

Yesterday in the criminal court, Judge Hugus on the bench, in the case of the state vs. McGruder, the matter was tried before a jury, which brought in a verdict of not guilty.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Emilie Krieger occurred yesterday afternoon from the home of her brother, Charles Kraft, opposite Wheeling park, and was largely attended by people from this city. The interment followed at Greenwood.

Yesterday in the circuit court, Judge Hervey, there was an order in the case of the H. B. Chaffin Company vs. the Sample-Lingman Company, directing the receiver to transfer certain property at 1213 Market street to the McCrory Company, in consideration of $500.

Excelsior lodge No. 40, I. O. O. F., will give a supper and watermelon festival this evening at Odd Fellows' hall, and it is expected that every Odd Fellow in the city will come, accompanied by at least one friend, to partake of Excelsior's hospitality. It is a stag affair.

Henry Day, of Glover's Gap, attempted to board a moving Baltimore & Ohio passenger train at that point yesterday and was thrown under the train, receiving severe injuries to his left arm. The injured man was brought to Wheeling and placed in the North Wheeling hospital.

A number of the members of the Y. M. C. A. have established a camp at Powhatan. Eight of the boys left for there on Saturday, and a like number will do likewise next Saturday. The camp will be in session two weeks.

The crossing at Thirty-second street is being repaired by the Baltimore & Ohio Company, and it is being repaired on a substantial scale.

Yesterday afternoon about 1 o'clock a severe wind, hail and rain storm passed over this neighborhood. It was all over in half an hour, but while it lasted considerable damage was inflicted, especially on vegetation. Many tree branches were torn away and distributed miscellaneous over streets and fields. No serious damage, so far as could be learned, was inflicted in this vicinity.

Newly decorated and refitted in all departments the Opera House opening under the management of Mr. Feinler occurred last night. A large audience saw the best minstrel show ever in Wheeling, W. H. West's minstrel jubilee, and expressed its enthusiastic approval of the several new features. It was a most auspicious opening of the theatrical season.

The police yesterday arrested Lottie O'Toole, Sadie Woods, F. J. Woods and R. A. Harrington at Corinne Riley's house of ill fame. A charge of loitering was placed against them. Miss O'Toole, despite her Irish name, claimed to be of French birth, and expressed a desire to telegraph her father, whom she declared was keeper of the prison in which Dreyfus was incarcerated. Her mind was evidently misled by too much liquor.

It is expected that the Wheeling Odd Fellows will attend the Detroit meeting of the sovereign grand lodge, September 17, in large numbers. A committee, composed of Messrs. D. W. Martin, S. M. Darrach, C. T. Reed, Charles Loeffler and R. S. Handy, has been appointed to interview the several competing railway lines and secure a special train and low rate of fare. If a liberal rate is granted the committee expects about 200 Wheeling Odd Fellows will take the trip.

MERCHANTS' DAY.

A Meeting of the Executive Committee and Business men

AT WHICH A FINE PROGRAMME

Was Discussed Informally—The Committees Meet Again Wednesday Night When the Contract for the Fireworks Spectacle Will be Let. Special Rates for Visitors at the Opera House—$1,300 Subscribed Now.

The executive committee and a number of business men interested in the coming Merchants' Days during State Fair week, met last evening at the chamber of commerce for the purpose of discussing the plans of entertainment. Owing to the fact that one of the several firms bidding for the proposed display did not have its bid in shape last evening, the meeting adjourned without letting the contract. A meeting of the executive, finance and entertainment committees is called for Wednesday evening at the rooms of the chamber of commerce, when the arrangements for the affair will be consummated.

The finance committee reported that it had received subscriptions to the Merchants' Days fund aggregating over $1,300, and that at least $300 more is in sight, and will be subscribed within the ensuing day or two.

The programme as outlined, but which is not yet definitely settled, calls for a fireworks display on Wednesday night at the public landing at a cost of about $1,200, a concert in connection with the spectacle and the erection of several arches on the principal business streets. So it will be seen the committees will need all of the $1,500 in sight, or more, and the merchants who have not subscribed to the fund are earnestly desired to come forward with their donations.

It is proposed to give the fireworks display from two barges anchored in the river near the Island shore, between the two yacht ferry landings. It is expected that the public landing, the Stamm House and all the available standing room on the river front will be occupied Wednesday night, and it is estimated that there is standing room for about 15,000 people.

Bids have been received from three large fireworks firms, the Palms, of New York; Masten & Wells Company, of Boston, and Detwiler & Street, of New York. The representative of the latter, Mr. Oswald Schreiber, was present, but as his bid was not in shape for presentation, the committee agreed to postpone the letting of the contract until Wednesday evening. Each programme submitted contains between fifty-five and sixty-five numbers, including set pieces, aerial work, etc., and either of the three submitted will be a hummer.

It was reported to the committee that Manager Charles A. Feinler, of the Opera House, would give special rates to the visiting business men in the city on Merchants' Days, Wednesday and Thursday, September 6 and 7. The committee will act on the proposition Wednesday night, favorably, it is believed.

The finance committee expects to make its report in full Wednesday night, with not less than $1,500 as the total amount of the subscriptions.
